

All Saints Day

ALL SAINTS SUNDAY, NOV. 4
 This Sunday, Nov. 4, at both worship services, the Christian church around the world will be observing a centuries old tradition—remembering and giving thanks for the saints of God in our lives who have gone on to their home in heaven.

If you have lost a loved one, we would like to surround you with the strength, support and love of your church, to celebrate the memories and the GIFT that these saints (All Christian believers are saints!) were to us! What a privilege to have had them in our lives! How our lives are changed because of them!

Please email or bring a (labeled!) picture to the church office by Nov. 1, or with you to church on Nov.

4. We would like to make a slide show of pictures of people who have passed away this year – congregational members and members’ loved ones—in honor and memory of them.

Those who have passed away in years prior, we would like to honor by displaying their pictures in the gathering area.

If you don’t have a picture to share, email the names of the people you would like to include by Nov. 1, letting us know if they passed away this year or in a previous year.

All who worship together that day are invited to come forward and light a candle in memory and honor of their loved one. Help us to offer this precious time of memory and love to you and to each other on the special day.

Stephen Ministry

IS GOD CALLING YOU TO BE A STEPHEN MINISTER?

HAVE YOU EVER: Experienced a death and no one spoke of that person to you? Or you questioned whether it was “Christian” to grieve and found yourself with no one to speak to?

Known someone else who was experiencing grief or a crisis and you wanted to help but didn’t know what to say or do—and so you stayed away so you wouldn’t do or say the wrong thing?

While on the Journey...

"5 Kernels of Corn"

We have a custom in our family based on a story about the early Pilgrims who had to endure so much. Bradford's diary noted that at one point, their daily food allowance was only 5 kernels of corn per person—and yet these are the ones who taught us how to give thanks.

I don't know if that story is true or not. I do know it provides us with a moment to live our gratitude. Before we eat our Thanksgiving dinner, we each place 5 kernels of corn on our plate. Our grace begins as each one there, picks up a kernel, one by one, naming something for which they give thanks to God. From oldest to youngest, everyone gives thanks. It has become a beautiful time of growing together in God's love.

What might your 5 kernels of corn represent? What are the things that have gotten you through this year? When were the times you felt the most blessed? When did you feel God's hand most strongly lifting you up? Let your family—and let your church family—know. This year, before you eat your Thanksgiving meal—and perhaps some times during the year when you need to remember God's presence the most—won't you join our family by beginning with 5 kernels of corn and sharing your thanks?

Together, as the people of God and the Haysville United Methodist Church, let's offer not only a day or a season of Thanksgiving but lives that, in everything we do and are, say "Thank you, blessed and gracious God."

In Thanksgiving and Peace,

Phyllis

Prayer Walking

Prayer Walking – Stepping Out on a Call to Care Our community needs to know “God Is.” They need to know God is with them. They need to know there are people who care about them and this community—so much that they are willing to devote a half-hour to an hour each week to praying for them.

Are you that kind of a person? Could you become that kind of person? If so, God has need of you now. Prayer Walking has the unique ability to not only lift someone up to God—but to let that person know they are being prayed for at that very moment. It makes a statement to the community that the people of this church live what they profess. It says that we’re not just content to sit inside our nice warm church and say you’re welcome to join us—but that we are willing to meet you at your point of need because that’s where God is and we want to be His hands—and feet. Some of us have been doing it individually. This month we begin doing that together. Wednesday, Nov. 7, from 6-6:30 pm, in E1 all interested persons are invited to come to form walking partnerships and groups and schedule future group walk times and prayer walking events. Join us!

Isn't it time to Step Out on our Call to Caring?

HUMM Pancake Feed

It's time to plan ahead. On Dec. 1 we will have the 35th annual HUMM Pancake Day! Yes, for the past 35 years, the HUMM have prepared the most tasty pancakes and sausage that you have ever wrapped your lips around. Wash it down with coffee, milk or OJ. Just in case you're still hungry, you are welcome to have a serving of biscuits and sausage gravy. These too, are included in the price of the event. Tickets are $5.50 at the door; $5.00 if a ticket is purchased in advance. These discount tickets can be purchased from a HUMM member, in the Church office or between services in the Gathering Area. The HUMM look forward to serving you in Fellowship Hall from 7:00 am - 2 pm.

Although the Ministry Fair display was not very big, it was put there by some dedicated HUMM guys that wanted to show just what the Haysville United Methodist Men was all about. Our mission is pledged to support the work and the word of the church. We urgently need younger men in the group...most are ages of 70

-80 years of age. We have been organized for 35 years. Although it has been fun, we have grown weary doing it. Our three fundraising activities have earned over $60,000 in our 35 years of existence. These funds have been used to purchase unbudgeted items needed for the church, provide funds for members and community family needs, school and other function fundraising activities and just being all around good guys.

Come join us today!

Thanks

The 2012 Fall Festival Booth was a great success, thanks to your efforts! We had great weather and excellent crowds, even "too excellent crowds" at times. We gave out 1,900 calendars, 800 wallet calendars, 150 brochures, 100 "Bills", and about 700 balloons. We greeted some 3,650 persons and gave them something with our church name and information. Sandy reports she has already had one call requesting more information. May God bless our efforts to advertise our church and our Lord! Ed Hatcher

A big Thank You to everyone who donated door prizes for the Car Show in September.

Young Adults

Young Adult Ministry

Have questions about how to study scripture? Have questions about where God wants to take you in His word? Soon and very soon, probably early 2013, I am looking at starting an evening bible study for adults, age 18 and older, on a night during the week or possibly even Sunday evenings. If you would have any input as to what day or timeframe would work best for you, please let me know as I am in beginning stages of putting this endeavor together.

Also looking forward and anticipating monumental spiritual growth through our new book study "Doctrine" by Mark Driscoll and Gerry Breshears. "What does it mean to be a Christian? What should Christians believe, regardless of what denominational persuasion they've been accustomed to?" These questions as well as others will hopefully be answered. Look forward to seeing you Sunday mornings from 9:45-10:45 in room W-1 for this study. God bless.

-Jim

"How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? And how can they preach unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!" -Romans 10:14-15

Hymn
Origins

"Wonderful Grace of Jesus" 1918 By Haldor Lillenas Worship leaders

around the world owe a debt of gratitude to Lillenas Publishing Company, which was started by the author of this hymn, Haldor Lillenas. He was born in the fjord district of Norway in 1885, and, as a child, immigrated to the United States with his family. From his youth, Haldor had a musical bent, a talent that served him well when he entered the ministry in 1910 in the newly established Church of the Nazarene.

Between his sermons and visits, Haldor took musical studies by correspondence and soon began writing gospel songs. In 1919, he published his first book, and three years later he organized his own publishing house in Indianapolis, Indiana, where he was serving as pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene. For the next decade, Haldor preached, traveled, wrote hymns, and published songbooks.

In 1930, the Nazarene Publishing House in Kansas City, Missouri, became interested in expanding its fledgling efforts in the field of music. They agreed to purchase Lillenas Publishing Company provided that Haldor himself would move to Kansas City and manage it. He remained in that role until he retired in 1950, then served in an advisory capacity until his death in Aspen, Colorado, in 1959. Today Lillenas Publishing Company is one of the largest church music publishers in the world, owning more than 20,000 song copyrights.

"Wonderful Grace Of Jesus" is the best known of the 4,000 hymns Haldor himself wrote. He later gave this account of how it came to be composed: "In 1917, Mrs. Lillenas and I built our first little home in the town of Olivet, Illinois. Upon its completion, we had scarcely any money left to furnish the little home. Having no piano at the time, and needing an instrument of some kind, I managed to find, at one of the neighbor's home, a little wheezy organ which I purchased for $5.00. With the aid of this instrument, a number of my songs were written which are now popular, including "Wonderful Grace Of Jesus." It was sung by the great chorus, in 1918, at the Northfield, Massachusetts Bible Conference, being introduced for the first time by Homer Hammontree."

Not yet having started his own publishing house, he sold his soon-to-be-famous hymn for $5.00—just enough to pay for the organ on which it was composed.

Excerpt from the book, "Then Sings My Soul" By Robert J. Morgan

I am always fascinated with the story behind the creation and composition of each song that has been written ! That is why I like to share these hymn stories with you. In worship each week, we are now singing "Sabbath Prayer" as a blessing to our kids and youth each week. The song was originally written for the musical "Fiddler On The Roof" which was penned by Jerry Bock with lyrics by Sheldon Harnick. The song is being sung immediately following the Children's Message.

In preparation for the Haysville Community Thanksgiving Service, we will be putting together a community choir which will sing as part of that service. The service will be at 7 p.m. on the Tuesday before Thanksgiving and will be held at the River Of Life Church here in Haysville. If anyone is interested in singing for that, we will be rehearsing on Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 7:45 p.m. as the first part of our chancel choir practice. The song we will be singing is "Give Thanks". Please come to the rehearsals if you would like to sing. We would love to have you join us! Blessings,

Grace-FULL

Are you worn out with Christmas "as usual"? Too much to do and places to go and gifts to buy, and cooking to get done and on and on and ...? I know this may seem strange BUT, how about a study on "A Different Kind of Christmas"? Just another place to be.... WELL, maybe you need to be there...maybe you could slow down, and give one hour a week to just listening and thinking about--- LIVING AND GIVING LIKE JESUS!!! The DVD study will be Wednesdays beginning Nov. 7 (I know that's soon!) at 6:30-7:30. We will have to skip a couple of weeks to accommodate Thanksgiving and Caroling- so it will end on Dec. 19.

OK, are you ready to give one hour a week during Advent to really get ready for Christmas? Join me on: Wed. Nov. 7 @ 6:30 in room E-1 for "A Different Kind of Christmas- Living and Giving Like Jesus", and let's find a new way together. GRACE,
Linda

Haysville Community Outreach

Every year the Haysville Community Outreach provides food and toys for eligible families in the Haysville School District. The HCO board is made up of people from, different Haysville churches, and is a 501(c) 3 organization. Every year volunteers are needed to help insure the success of the program.

We are asking for volunteers to help box the food and distribute it. If you can help either Wednesday or Saturday, let us know.

In December, help is needed to sort and wrap toys and fill food boxes. The December schedule is: Monday, Dec. 10, 6:30 pm, sort toys by age and by family; Wednesday, Dec. 12, 5:30 pm, fill food boxes; Thursday, Dec. 13, 6:30 pm, wrap packages; Saturday, Dec. 17, 9

Beginning in January, 2013, we will be offering the Stephen Ministry Training Course, a semester-long, weekly 2 hour class that will equip lay persons to provide quality Christian care to hurting people. It will be taught by certified Stephen Leaders: Pastor Phyllis, her husband, Paul Saas, and Visitation Coordinator, Linda Stephen Ministers will be matched with persons seeking the kind of continued individual and confidential support offered by Stephen Ministers, as well as help provide for the broader care needs in this church and in their own families. those children in our community who might not have a merry Christmas without our help. Select a card from the "Giving Tree" and buy a gift for that age child. Return it, unwrapped, with the tag to the tree by December 9. The gifts will be taken to West Haysville Baptist Church for distribution.

Volunteer help will be needed at West Haysville Baptist Church to sort and wrap the gifts. Sorting will be done Dec. 10 at 6:30. Dec. 12 at 5:30 is the night to fill the food boxes.

Thursday, Dec. 13 at 6:30 will be wrapping and labeling the packages. A lot of help is needed to do that. The gifts will be distributed Dec. 15 from 9 to 11 a.m. at West Haysville Baptist Church. Volunteers are needed then, and Santa will be there for the children.

After the gifts are taken from the church, the "Giving Tree" will be the place to put socks, gloves & hats for the homeless.

SR Dinner

This year's Senior Citizen's Dinner was bright with sunflowers all over the place! We had 90-95 people, and David Carrell made a terrific meal. We want to thank everyone who helped serve the meal and cleanup afterwards. A special thanks to the Threadbare Theater group for their presentation. They had the group laughing! If you need a group to perform let Marion Renner know. Everyone had a enjoyable Sunday afternoon. If you are a senior citizen and have wondered about all the fun we have - plan on joining us again in September of 2013.

As the Holiday season is fast approaching us, the Family Life Center has planned a couple of fall activities that you need to be sure to mark on your calendars!

Tuesdays, from Nov. 27 - Dec. 18; Pickup / Shoot Around Basketball. The Basketball Goals will be out, and anyone who comes can enjoy some shoot around or some pickup basketball. No Cost, time is from 7 pm - 8:30 pm.

Saturday, Dec. 15; A Taste of Christmas. Sign up for a booth, so visitors can sample your best Christmas candy, soup, snack or food. Prizes will be given for the best food Entrants can sample all the Christmas goodies setup throughout the FLC, get recipes from their favorite samples, and vote for their favorites- with fellowship, friendships and warmth of the HUMC. More details to come- but get excited and ready for this fun event where we can invite the community into our Church for some fun and festive food and fellowship.

Help spread the word about these events. They are open to all, and we would love to see as many folks participate as possible. Advertising is always the challenge, so give
